Don't miss the 2026 Keeping Christmas Market

❖Opening the Advent Celebration❖

Sunday, December 6
Following worship until 11:30 a.m.
Fellowship Hall

Concern America – Fair Trade Gifts

Purchase beautiful, handcrafted art pieces at prices set by the artisans from this globally-focused, local non-profit organization.

Concern America will remain open until noon in the Fireside Lounge.

Family Promise

Gifts to this interfaith network of congregations help provide emergency shelter, hospitality, and services to local homeless families.

Habitat for Humanity

This non-profit, ecumenical Christian housing ministry is supported through your donations for building supplies. Gifts assist volunteers to build houses, working in partnership with those otherwise unable to afford decent shelter.

Heifer International

Your donations at the HI table go toward the purchase of animals and training in their care, enabling hungry families around the world to begin producing their own food and income.

Hope Harbor Christmas Wishes (formerly Laurel House)

Help grant the wishes of this residential facility for teens in crisis by selecting an ornament from their tree and purchasing a special gift.

La Semilla Learning Center

Support this after-school homework and instructional program with your donations, and/or sign up to join TPC's team of volunteer tutors.

The Spanish Ministry

Sign up to join the weekly food bank volunteers and/or contribute cash or grocery cards to help supplement this impactful ministry.

Virtual Market

Before December 15, make a gift by check to Tustin Presbyterian Church or use TPC's online DONATE button. Designate your donation to Keeping Christmas Market (or to one of the listed organizations) in the memo line/notes section.
